Basic Detail Report

Southern Congressman, having paid a visit to the President-elect, is much dissatisfied with ek of interest Governor Cleveland showed in his suggestion that the offices should be with Democrats' as soon as possible. To this Mr. Cleveland replied: 'I fear there will be disappointment about that. You know that we are greatly indebted to many Repub-and that our party is pledged to civil-service reform.' When the Congressman returned shington he said to his friends: 'Gentlemen, we've got a big elephant on our hands.'' y Proper.

"Have The Democrats An Elephant" from Harper's Weekly, February 28, 1885

Date 1885

Artist/Maker Thomas Nast

Medium Wood engraving

Dimensions Quarter page

Object number 1976.159.1834