

Basic Detail Report

Poncho

Date

c. 1978

Artist/Maker

Unknown, Native American (Latin America)

Medium

Wool

Description

Poncho with four vertical bands with alternating images of llamas (or another camelid) and humans or deities with hands holding a rectangular object in front of its body. The figures are separated by a variant of a Greek key design, and the bands are edged with rows of small diamonds. The images within the band are dark on a light background on one side and the opposite color scheme on the other side.

Dimensions

72" L including frige x 49 1/2" W

Object number

NLA2013.41.ERG