

Wall Hanging

Date

1970

Artist/Maker

Unknown, Native American (Latin America)

Medium

Wool

Description

Wall tapestry, single sided, with brown field and orange triangle borders on the right and left side. It depicts a standing figure (deity?) with a headdress, white face bordered in a pumpkin color, outstretched yellow arms, and a body consisting of stacked rectangular and trapezoidal elements in various colors, some the right and left heads of serpents or birds. Serpent heads also appear at the tops of the feet. Black and natural pattern at bottom border.

Dimensions

50 1/8" H x 24" W

Object number

NLA2013.26.ERG