

Basic Detail Report

Huipil (Blouse)

Date

Late 20th Century

Artist/Maker

Unknown, Ixil Maya

Medium

Cotton, cloth

Description

Huipil (woman's traditional blouse) from San Jaspar Chajul, Guatemala. Two panels of medium blue warp with few thin dark blue, orange, magenta, green and yellow stripes. Principle design is a variant of a double headed eagle twice on front and back, and flanked on the each side with another double headed creature. Geometric patterns on the shoulders and upper chest.

Dimensions

24 3/4" H x 34 1/2" W (G)

Object number

NLA2011.03.AVE