

Tari (Ritual Cloth)

Date

Late 20th Century

Artist/Maker

Unknown, Quechua

Medium

Handspun natural alpaca and llama wool, dyed sheep wool

Description

Tari, ritual textile used for serving coca leaves. Three colorful bands with dotted diamond patterns bordered by stripes. Unusual wide crocheted edge.

Dimensions

22 1/4" H x 16" W

Object number

NLA2010.15.LMA