

Deer Dancer

Artist/Maker

J.D. Roybal, Oquwa (Rain God)

Medium

Silk screen, oil ink, on paper

Description

Deer Dancer in left profile with typical antlered headdress and two sticks representing the animal's forelegs standing on a ground line with a feathered half sun disc to the left above the line and a half disc below his right foot.

Dimensions

11 3/4" H x 10 1/4" W (framed)

Object number

NA2011.61.WHI