

Clay Woman

Date

2006

Artist/Maker

Tamalyn (Tammy) Tarbell

Medium

Glass beads, brass/bronze, clay, feathers, leather/hide, pigment

Description

Woman molding her own body in the form of a traditional Iroquois pot with castellations. The woman wears a mantle with hatch mark border as in the pot itself. The mantle is decorated with leather and beaded fringe. Her hair has a feather and beaded tassel.

Dimensions

11" H 9" W 9" D

Object number

NA2006.04.LMA