

Lacrosse player doll

Date

2008

Artist/Maker

Beverly Doxtater (Miller)

Medium

Cloth, feathers, fiber, leather/hide, Silver, wood, yarn, Corn husks, synthetic felt, string

Description

Male corn husk doll actively posed as a lacrosse player with his stick, mounted on a birch tree round base. He has braided black yarn hair and wears a gustoweh with a single large feather pointing upward in Seneca style. He wears printed cloth tunic with white scallop stitch design around hem and cuffs; gray deerskin fringed leggings and natural deerskin loin cloth; white hide boots, white felt neckerchief with a silver brooch. Brown and white yarn on shirt and leggings.

Dimensions

12" H x 10 1/4" W

Object number

NA2010.069.LMA