

young female Navajo doll

Date

2000

Artist/Maker

Clara Emerson Begay

Medium

Cotton, cloth, fiber, Metal, Wool, yarn, Cotton cloth, felt

Description

Cloth doll of a young girl. She wears a blue cotton sleeveless dress with a white ribbon belt and white rickrack trim, off-white bloomers, and yellow felt boots with white soles and metal star emblems. Her face is stitched/embroidered and black wool hair is tied in a bun with white yarn. She is playing with a woven yarn sash in Hopi style also used by Navajos.

Dimensions

7 1/2 " H x 5 " W

Object number

NA2009.08.LAND