

Female doll

Date

1997

Artist/Maker

Unknown, Native American (USA)

Medium

Glass beads, yarn

Description

Female doll made from tanned hide with skirt and fringed shirt. She has no facial features, black yarn hair, bead earrings. Her wrists and elbows are indicated with tied string. Moccasins are suggested by beaded fringe and beadwork on top of her toes. The skirt has beadwork at the lower edge, and the tunic has beads on the arms, front and back. The beads are turquoise blue, green, white, and black, with a red bead cross on the back of the tunic.

Dimensions

11" H

Object number

NA2008.27.MUR