Description

Female standing figure with crested hairdo with linear hair strands indicated, C shaped ears, continuous eyebrows and nose, rimmed eyes, slightly protruding mouth with triangular teeth displayed. There is a horizontal scar on each cheek, three horizontal keloid scars on neck and three vertical keloid scars at the back of the neck. The figure is depicted with a carved loincloth and two strands of waist beads as well as black slippers on her feet. Her hands are held at her sides separate from body. The entire figure has a red pigment with black hair and black slippers. According to S. Vogel (2014) this is made in a style that was new in the 1950s.
