

Basic Detail Report

---

“Deer Antler” Pot

Date

2012

Artist/Maker

Natasha Smoke Santiago

Medium

Antler, clay, raffia

Description

Hand-modeled pot of white clay, smoked to a tan color with fire clouds, with a traditional narrow neck and wide collar with six castellations. As in traditional pots, ornamentation is confined to neck and collar area: two types of punctate designs above and below the neck, incised hatch marks and linear borders in the collar, three impressed circles in each castellation. Embellished with raffia around the neck and a deer antler button. The bottom is flat.

Dimensions

6 3/4" H x 7" Diam.

Object number

NA2013.04.LMA