

New Indian - Portrait Jar

Date

2010

Artist/Maker

Peter B. Jones

Medium

Clay, copper, pigment, shell, wood, Quahog shell (Mercenaria mercenaria), synthetic sinew, coated wire

Description

Bust of man with tall headdress with four feathers topped with loops with beaded sinew. Representations of three teeth or claws, a vertical line of beads, vertical line of triangles, and serpent in relief. He also wears copper earrings with wooden beads and the representation of an iPod Shuffle with earbud connected with a white wire. Wheel-thrown bottom, hand built face and headdress.

Dimensions

15" H x 7 1/2" Diam.

Object number

NA2010.104.LMA