

Tapestry of Bird and Person

Date

1970s

Artist/Maker

Unknown, Native American (Latin America)

Medium

Wool

Description

Two small tapestries individually woven on a loom and still conjoined with warp threads between them. Both tapestries are single sided. The upper tapestry depicts a bird with a black breast, red legs, yellow head, and multicolored wings. The lower tapestry depicts a male figure with black head, red hat, green outstretched arms, yellow legs, and multicolored striped body.

Dimensions

27" H x 15 5/8" W

Object number

NLA2013.27.ERG