

Object number
NLA2011.06.KEL

Lliclla (Utility Cloth)

Date
c.1970?

Artist/Maker
Unknown, Quechua

Medium
Wool, Indigo dye?

Description
Small lliclla utility cloth or mantle with two panels in primarily blue and red colors. The warp contains two wide stripes apparently dyed with indigo, and two stripes of medium width at the outer borders. Thin stripes of white, green, yellow, red, and (rarely) purple are interspersed with four bands with ch'unchu (wild man) designs in red and blue, and narrower bands with small geometric designs.

Dimensions
27 3/4" x 27