

Ch'uspa (Bag)

Date

Late 20th C.

Artist/Maker

Unknown, Quechua

Medium

Other

Description

Ch'uspa bag. Central band contains concentric diamonds with scrolls, a design known as pumac maqui, an abstraction of a puma's paw. Pairs of side bands have scroll patterns. Crocheted tubing at top and sides. Multicolored fringe at the bottom and three braided tassels that split and end in tufted circlets. Tassels are called chakis, feet.

Dimensions

4 3/4" W x 4 7/8" L w/out strap or tufts

Object number

NLA2010.32.MAR