

Basic Detail Report

---

Awayo

Date

20th C

Artist/Maker

Unknown, Aymara

Medium

Wool

Description

Awayo (awayu) woman's utility cloth used to carry goods or children. The predominant pattern is four groups of three bands of diamonds enclosing S-shapes flanked by smaller diamonds. The S-shape appears alone in a narrow band at the outer edges of the cloth. Other patterns include concentric triangles and small concentric circles, as well as linear patterns on one half of the cloth.

Dimensions

35 1/2" W x 43 3/4" L

Object number

NLA2009.01.KER