

Clay Woman

Date
2006

Artist/Maker
Tamalyn (Tammy) Tarbell

Medium
Glass beads, brass/bronze, clay, feathers, leather/hide, pigment

Description
Woman molding her own body in the form of a traditional Iroquois pot with castellations. The woman wears a mantle with hatch mark border as in the pot itself. The mantle is decorated with leather and beaded fringe. Her hair has a feather and beaded tassel.

Dimensions
11" H 9" W 9" D

Object number
NA2006.04.LMA