

Female doll with baby

Date

20th C

Artist/Maker

Unknown, Inuit (Nunavut)

Medium

Glass beads, cotton, cloth, fur, leather/hide, yarn, wool and cotton cloth, embroidery thread, ribbon

Description

Mother and child doll, both with cloth bodies and duffle faces. The mother wears a "packing parka" in which the baby is carried in the large hood. The leather mittens and hood of the embroidered white woolen (stroud) amautik are trimmed with fur. Underneath, the mother wears a flowered cotton print skirt, pink woolen socks, and leather boots (kamiks) with sealskin trim. Both mother and child have embroidered faces and black braided yarn hair. Baby is removable.

Dimensions

14 1/4" mother; c. 16" with baby in parka

Object number

NA2009.01.KER