

Female doll with patchwork garments

Date

1930s

Artist/Maker

Unknown, Seminole

Medium

Glass beads, cloth, palmetto fibers

Description

Female doll. Cylinder body constructed from palmetto fibers, with typical long skirt and cape decorated with rickrack, patchwork stripes and a zigzag pattern. Embroidered eyes and mouth. Multicolored glass beads around neck, and representation of traditional style of hair stretched over an armature. Made with hand cranked sewing machine.

Dimensions

10 1/2" H

Object number

NA2009.42.GEL