

Basic Detail Report

Mud Cloth

Artist/Maker

Unknown, Bamana (Bambara)

Medium

Cloth

Description

Mud cloth composed of eight hand woven strips, each 5” wide, hand sewn together. Small fringe on top and bottom. Alternating pattern of squares filled with cross-crossed lines and squares divided into four smaller squares each segmented with an X forming a large diamond, with occasional exceptions in which the patterns do not alternate but appear next to and above one another. One end of the textile has a border of rectangles hatched with diagonal lines.

Dimensions

74” L x 39 1/2” W

Object number

AF2002.1457.COP