

Basic Detail Report

Adire Oniko

Date

Late 20th C

Artist/Maker

Unknown, Yoruba

Medium

Cloth, pigment, cotton cloth, indigo dye

Description

Adire Oniko indigo resist-dyed cloth. Two lengths of commercially woven cotton joined in the center and dyed with a pattern of circles on the borders and outlined squares enclosing two alternating patterns, one with three vertical elements and the other consisting of a single vertical with six short diagonal forms on the sides. Resist-dyed cloth, these pieces were gathered, stitched with raffia thread around the folds, then dyed in indigo.

Dimensions

76" (hemmed) x 67 1/2"

Object number

AF2007.17.HAM