

Gelede Mask

Artist/Maker

Unknown, Yoruba, Egbabo

Medium

Pigment, wood

Description

Gelede mask. In the superstructure, a hunter dressed in pants, a tunic and a cap holds a machete in his right hand and the back leg of a wild pig in his left hand. A flintlock gun appears on both sides. According to Henry Drewal, this mask comes from Meko in the Ketu region.

Dimensions

37.5 h x 27.5 W x 31 D cm

Object number

AF2002.1907.COP